

New England Authors and Illustrators of Children's Books

Information Sheet

The New England Children's Booksellers Advisory Council (NECBA), an advisory body to the New England Independent Booksellers Association (NEIBA) compiles a listing of published New England authors and illustrators of children's books. In order to be listed, at least one of your books must be currently available for re-sale to NEIBA member bookstores. Authors, illustrators or photographers whose books are available only through book clubs, school reading series or textbook companies are not included. You must also live in one of the six New England states: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut or Rhode Island.

You can insure your inclusion in the listing by completing this information sheet and returning it to the address listed on the return side. Or email to nan@neba.org
